Giving back to the Future of Podiatry

"Giving back to the Future of Podiatry"

The Florida Podiatric Medical Society was formed to be the philanthropic arm of the Florida Podiatric Medical Association. Over the years its fundraising has aided the FPMA with Public Education, Philanthropy, and the establishment of Scholarships to worthwhile students in the pursuit of a Podiatric medical career. The Society has a history of donating to the Irving Book Scholarship, to Children's Home Society, "Let Someone Fill Your Shoes" drive for shoes to the homeless, as well as many one time charitable contributions to worthwhile charities in the State of Florida.

The Florida Podiatric Medical Society is recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as a 501(c)(3) organization. All donations to the Society may be Charitable Contributions and may be fully deductible. Check with your accountant.

The Florida Podiatric Medical Society will continue to be a supportive organization to the FPMA in its efforts to educate citizens of Florida about the benefits of Podiatric care and the many advantages in seeking foot and ankle care from a Podiatric physician member of the FPMA.

How Can I Donate?

Pledge

You can pledge your donation over 3, 5, or even 10 years.

Endowment

You can donate some of your Life Insurance to the Society which will be donated after your passing.

Estate Donation

You can have your estate make a contribution upon your passing by directing it to do so in your will.

You should review these and other options with your accountant or estate planner in order to fully appreciate the advantages these types of donations have.
