Don't miss out on this great opportunity to spend a glorious weekend at the beautiful Hyatt Regency Coconut Point Resort in Bonita Springs. There will be fun and relaxing times to be had at the Hyatt, from the lazy river pool, golf, and spa treatments to the evening fire pit. Along with all the amenities that the Hyatt has to offer, there will be fantastic lectures on practice management to help jumpstart your practice. You can also participate in scientific lectures on dermatology, interesting MRI cases, biomechanics, and wound healing. You won't want to miss out on Sunday's lecture with Dr. Michael Brody, as he provides updated information on PRQI, Electronic RX, and Meaningful Use. Find out how these can bring in extra income to your practice....right now. Mark your calendars, bring the family, and come enjoy the June 2010 FPMA Conference!
