Phillip Decubellis, DPM, and Sherika Newman, DO, Named Most Valuable Physicians at North Broward Medical Center

Deerfield Beach, FL – Every quarter, Broward Health North Broward Medical Center recognizes two outstanding doctors as Most Valuable Physicians (MVP). This quarter’s MVP recipients are Phillip Decubellis, DPM, and Sherika Newman, DO.

“We are thrilled to present the MVP award to these two very deserving physicians,” said Pauline Grant, CEO of North Broward Medical Center. “Their hard work, dedication and compassion to both patients and hospital staff make them a priceless asset to our family here at North Broward Medical Center.”

Dr. Decubellis has been a Podiatrist and Wound Care physician at North Broward Medical Center since 2006. He received his undergraduate degree from the University of South Florida before earning a Doctor of Podiatric Medicine degree from Ohio College of Podiatric Medicine in Cleveland, OH. He completed his residency at the University of Southern California in Los Angeles, CA. His nominations praised his compassion and dedication to always doing what’s best for the patient.

Dr. Newman joined North Broward Medical Center as a Palliative Care physician in 2009. She received her undergraduate degree from Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University in Tallahassee, FL. She then went on to earn a Doctor of Osteopathy from Nova Southeastern University before completing her residency with Broward Health. Her nominations spoke of her as a true advocate for patients, stating she has made a huge impact on patients in regards to pain management.

Broward Health, providing service for more than 50 years, is a nationally recognized system offering world class health care services to our neighbors in South Florida.
