FLORIDA PODIATRIC MEDICAL ASSOCIATION (FPMA)
MEMBER DENNIS R. FRISCH, DPM INSTALLED AS APMA PRESIDENT

TALLAHASSEE – The Florida Podiatric Medical Association (FPMA) is proud to announce the installation of FPMA member Dennis R. Frisch, DPM as the new President of the American Podiatric Medical Association (APMA) by Ross A. Taubman, DPM. The official swearing-in ceremony took place on Sunday, March 18, 2018 during the 98th annual APMA House of Delegates taking place in Washington, D.C. Dr. Frisch is the most recent FPMA member to serve in this position of leadership on a national level. It has been 22 years since the last FPMA member, Sheldon Willens, DPM was sworn in as APMA President in 1996.

Dr. Frisch graduated from Boca Raton High and the University of Florida. He earned his doctor of podiatric medicine degree from the Dr. William M. Scholl College of Podiatric Medicine at Rosalind Franklin University of Medicine and Science. After completing his residency training at the Franklin Boulevard Community Hospital in Chicago, Illinois, he returned to his hometown of Boca Raton, Florida, where he has practiced podiatric medicine for the past 35 years.

Dr. Frisch has always been active in his profession and community. He served as FPMA President in 1995 and has received the FPMA Podiatrist of the Year Award as well as the FPMA President's Award. He has twice been named one of the top 150 Most Influential Podiatrists in America. Dr. Frisch has also served on the Florida Board of Podiatric Medicine, having been appointed by Florida Governor Charlie Crist. He is a past president and still active in the Boca Raton Rotary Club.

Dr. Frisch enjoys spending time with his two adult children and two grandchildren.

FPMA proudly congratulates Dr. Frisch and wishes him well in this endeavor in the year to come.
